

RANDOM REFERENCES.

The Troy uses distilled water. -

Running races at Wahsatch Driving Park, June 3rd and 4th.

Yesterday was the anniversary of the birth of Brigham Young.

The entertainment given by the Woodmen of the World will occur tomorrow evening in Odd Fellows hall.

See the races June 3rd and 4th at the Wahsatch Driving Park. Best races of the season.

The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. M. H. Thomas, will be held at 3 o'clock today at the Second ward meetinghouse.

Three cars of fine racing stock from San Francisco stables has passed through since Sunday, bound for the Montana circuit.

J. M. Johnston, L. B. Gram, E. B. Boyd and L. F. Kimball, officials of the Rock Island railway, enjoyed the sights of the city on Crescents.

Large numbers of people are now passing through en route to the Coeur d'Alene, and the British Columbia gold fields.

Rev. Job Turner, the deaf mute evangelist, arrived yesterday. He will conduct exercises in the Deaf and Dumb school today and will deliver the baccalaureate sermon Sunday next.

Ladies are especially invited to attend the free Fine Art exhibit at 2572 Washington ave., Thursday, Friday and Saturday, June 3, 4 and 5, between 1:30 and 9 p. m. each day.

The remains of Mrs. Katherine Knox Dean, mother of Mrs. Bessie Dean Allison, of this city, were buried in the Salt Lake City cemetery yesterday. Services were held at the Nineteenth Ward meeting house.

A new boy came into the household of Henry Gwilliam yesterday morning. Mrs. Gwilliam is getting along nicely and Henry is thinking of abdicating his position as road supervisor in favor of the youngster.

National Committeeman Lindsey R. Rogers and ex-Senator Arthur Brown will reach Washington tomorrow, where they expect to dispense Utah patronage to the faithful McKinleyites in large, fat chunks.

The Evanston boys are holding out strong inducements to secure Fred Bluth for their baseball team. The boys here are rustling to make things satisfactory so Captain Bluth wont have to go from home to get a job.

John McManis is back in Ogden after an absence of about five years. He will remain in this section and will probably go into railroading again. Mr. McManis is at present direct from Old Mexico, where he has been looking up business matters for a few weeks past.

Joseph S. Peery is in receipt of a communication from Congressman King in which Mr. King asks for names of silver Republicans and Democrats who would appreciate silver literature. Those who desire may be placed on the list by giving their names to Mr. Peery.

The Atlas saloon is closed for the summer, and the proprietor, Albert Sadd, will start on an extended trip soon, the itinery taking in the northeast and northwest mining camps and down and through California. Mr. Sadd expects to reopen the Atlas in September.

R. T. Lundy, now of Denver, came to town yesterday. He reports business picking up, but says the worst enemy any town has is the external kicker who is always telling how the town is going to the dogs. He says would-be investors in Ogden are frequently queered by this practice.

Mr. E. A. Olson is back from his mission and in the grocery business again. He has bought the stock owned by Geo. A. Poulter and will take charge on Thursday. Mr. Olson's many friends will be glad to know he is back in the business where he was so popular two years ago.

In the conclusions of law in the Citizens' Bank case, Judge Hart decides that the franchise should be forfeited and the affairs wound up as soon as possible. He also directs that the sale of property and assets now in the hands of the receiver, be made to the best advantage of the stockholders. The findings of fact follow closely the charges made in the complaint.