

OGDEN'S EARLY HISTORY WRITTEN 20 YEARS AGO

Growth of the Place From a Wilderness to a City of Importance, as Told in a Directory—Names That Will Recall Days Gone By—Changes That Have Come in Twenty Years.

(FROM OGDEN DIRECTORY, 1853.)

OGDEN CITY DIRECTORY.

EXPLANATIONS:—The numbered streets commence in the northern portion of the city, First Street running east from the Iron Works to the bench; second Street comes next on the south; then come respectively Third, Fourth, and so on up to Eighth. North from First Street we have Park, Bluff, and North Streets successively, going east and west. The streets running north and south are respectively, (commencing at the Depot) Wall, Franklin, Young, Main, Spring, Smith, Pearl, Green, and East.
